

Drama & Theatre Online

Below are a number of links to get you started in your journey into Drama. More bridging work will follow:

National Theatre Collection

The National Theatre is offering an exciting range of fantastic productions to watch online during the lockdown. I would highly recommend One Man, Two Guvnors, Jane Eyre, Medea, Frankenstein and Small Island but there are many more to choose from. Follow the instructions below to gain access: In response to the school closures caused by Coronavirus, National Theatre is now offering username and password access to the National Theatre Collection. For a temporary period, plays can be accessed remotely ensuring students studying from home can still watch them.

Your access details are: <https://www.dramaonlinelibrary.com> Username: 9Pj!3Fu(zz Password: 6Da@9Je(o@ (The Log in button is in the top right-hand corner of the landing page. Please insert your username and password to left-hand option of the login pop-up.) Please ensure you are typing the credentials in rather than copying and pasting them as this can insert invisible spaces which invalidate the details. These should be entered under the 'access log in' and not the 'personal log in'.

If you have any difficulties please test in another browser as some are known as having issues. These details they must not be offered to anyone external to The Carlton Academy or posted on social media. Please note the free access is only to the National Theatre Collection whilst Drama Online is made up of 11 collections in total which are only available via subscription. Shakespeare's Globe Online The Globe is offering access to inspiring Shakespeare productions filmed at their traditional playhouse on London's South Bank. Romeo & Juliet, The Winter's Tale and A Midsummer Night's Dream are amongst the productions being streamed: <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCwN-jwNNNQN-8sfKG-qg8uA> BBC Culture in Quarantine The BBC is offering access to a number of professional productions through their Culture in Quarantine programme:

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/arts>The Shows Must Go On! If musicals are your favourite type of theatre, Andrew Lloyd Webber is streaming notable productions online on a weekly basis. Love Never Dies is the next musical to be streamed:

<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCdmPjhKMaXNNeCr1FjuMvag/featured> Smaller scale productions There is also some interesting work on YouTube such as Gecko's Time of her Life, a highly original piece of physical theatre: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5PQpxi7h_rc Regional Theatre: Leicester Curve The innovative Leicester Curve is offering access to past productions including The Importance of being Earnest: <https://www.curveonline.co.uk/the-show-must-go-online>